INTRODUCTION

It is very probable that few people live who have not at some time wondered from whence they came, and about who and what their forebears may have been, where they lived, and what they did. It is a fact that most of us have personal knowledge only of our parents and grandparents. In a majority of families, one may be safe in saying, practically nothing is passed on by word of mouth about family history and traditions further back than the grandparents. Usually if anything is mentioned at all it is of such a fragmentary nature that nothing definite is really known. These things being true, most people let it go at wondering about it for a while and then proceed to forget about it. Thus they fail to know the real interest and pleasure that may be found in a study of one's ancestry.

The writer, having delved into the past and tasted of the pleasure and enjoyment to be derived therefrom, has put the results of his inquiries together in the following family sketch, so that others might also learn of our common family and ancestry, and so too, know some of the satisfaction arising therefrom.

If you have in past time wondered whether your grandfather's father or grandfather were a butcher, baker, or candlestick maker, perhaps you may learn herein something about the question. With many families it is a matter of pride, and rightly so, that the same occupations have been followed by its members down through many generations. We find the same true in this family. Nearly every generation has had butchers, teachers, farmers, lawyers, and soldiers. These are all old and honorable professions, honored and respected in every community. It may also be mentioned that in all investigation leading up to this work, no instance has been found in this family of any conviction of any crime.

Usually in tracing back family lines, an effort is made to connect up with royalty. In this family I found several family accounts where the statement was made that the wife of John Bierer was descended from the family of Frederick the Great. The exact connection was not shown in any instance, and the research necessary to determine it, which would involve correspondence and research in Europe, would be too costly to justify the effort. Therefore, for the time being at least, the claim of royal descent must rest on the authority of the accounts referred to. If any member of this family is sufficiently interested in this angle to desire to finance the necessary research, I would be glad to hear from him.

In America, the thing nearest approaching royal descent in our estimation, is descent from Revolutionary ancestors. The original founders who fought to establish the Republic make up American royalty. While the first Bierers arrived too late to participate in the Revolution, the father of the wife of John Bierer, (number 2 in this record), Lieutenant Jacob Holtzinger (or Holtzer) served in the Pennsylvania Flying Camp, and his widow drew a pension for his service during the Revolution. There is one other instance where the wife of a Bierer, is descended from Revolutionary ancestors, the wife of Captain Bion B. Bierer. Persons descended through either of these parents are thereby eligible to the patriotic organizations made up of persons descended from Revolutionary War soldiers.

While gathering data on the Bierer family some data were found on one or two other allied families. What I have is given following the history of the Bierer family. Some data are shown on the Holtzinger-Holtzer family, intermarried with the Bierers first in 1805, and also in a later instance. Also some data are given on the Mull family, intermarried with the Bierer family in the case of my own grandparents. While the accounts on both of these families are meager, it is hoped to make them the nucleus of fuller records to be published later. To this end, all persons belonging to either of these two families are cordially invited to furnish me with as complete information on their respective families as they may be able to do. In furnishing data, please be sure to give names and ADDRESSES of other members of the family, so that they may be communicated with.

THE BIERER-BERRY FAMILY

The Descendants of Johann M. Bierer and
His Wife, Barbara Müller Bierer,
Who was of Royal Descent.

1. JOHN M. BIERER, or Johann M. Buehrer as the name was spelled in German, and the English pronunciation of which is as though it were spelled Beer-y, was born in Germany, and was married about 1780 to Miss Barbara Müller, of Brackenföldt Castle, situated in a valley of the River Neckar, a tributary of the Rhine, in the Kingdom of Württemberg, Germany. She was of royal descent, being descended from the family of Frederick the Great. The Biers were prominent in military and civil affairs, and it is said that John M. Bierer was an officer in the army. George Bierer, a relative, commanded a regiment in the Austrian army and was created a Baron for distinguished military services.

This couple with their three sons left Stuttgart, Germany, for Amsterdam, and sailed from there for America in May, 1804. The voyage was a long and tedious one, the ship being driven from its course by storms and later calmed for several weeks in the vicinity of the West Indies. Here a tropical fever carried off many of the passengers, among them being John M. Bierer, who was buried at sea. The widow and three sons arrived at Baltimore, Maryland, where they landed about the first of October, 1804. They at once set out on their journey across the Allegheny Mountains, and at length reached Pleasant Unity, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania. On this journey the mother was unable to keep up and the sons were obliged to carry her much of the way.

The three sons of this couple, all born in Germany, were:

- * 2. John M. Bierer, b. 1782; d. March 30, 1851.
- * 3. Frederick Bierer, b. 1791; d. June 7, 1854.
- * 4. Everhardt Bierer, b. Jan. 6, 1795; d. Aug. 2, 1876.

See Boucher's History of Westmoreland County, Pa., Vol. 3, p. 32; Vol. 2, p. 172. Also Gresham's Biographical and Historical Cyclopaedia of Westmoreland Co., Pa., p. 51.

2. JOHN M. BIERER, (John, 1), born in Germany in 1782; died March 30, 1851. He married first in 1805 Miss Barbara Holtzinger, a daughter of Jacob and Christina B. (Lukins) Holtzinger. She was born in 1786 and died in 1832. This union was blessed with fourteen children. He married second, in 1833, Mrs. Margaret (Holtzinger) Albright, a sister of his first wife. She was born in 1777 and died July 16, 1847. There was no issue of the second marriage. His mother, Barbara Müller Bierer, died March 19, 1843. All four were buried in the German Cemetery, Greensburg, Pa., but on the 13th of November, 1908, their bodies; together with that of Mrs. Christina B. Lukens Holtzinger, were disinterred and reinterred in the Union Cemetery, near Greensburg.

The children of John M. Bierer were as follows:

5. Jacob Bierer, birth date unknown. He went to New Orleans when a young man and never returned.
- * 6. John M. Bierer, b. Oct. 24, 1807; d. July 23, 1874.
- * 7. David Bierer, b. 1809; died 1855.
8. Benjamin Bierer, died in infancy.
9. Elizabeth Bierer, died in infancy.
- * 10. Rachel Bierer, b. 1812; d. June 10, 1899.
- * 11. Rosanna Bierer, b. July 24, 1813; d. Jan. 8, 1847.
- * 12. Sophis Fredericka Bierer, b. Dec. 7, 1816; died April 21, 1887.
- * 13. Luke Bierer, b. 1817; d. Sept. 3, 1888.
- * 14. Amos Bierer, b. Nov. 18, 1819; d. April 6, 1864.
- * 15. Anna Maria Bierer, b. Jan. 12, 1822; d. Mar. 5, 1888.
- * 16. Charlotte Bierer, b. Sept. 12, 1824; d.
- * 17. Salome Bierer, b. Feb. 10, 1826; d. Dec. 31, 1904.

The fourteenth child in thought to have been a girl, and it is believed that she married a man named Hoffman, but no definite data could be learned.

Upon their arrival in Westmoreland county in 1804, John M. Bierer, and his brothers were employed by a farmer named William Graff. He took an interest in John M., and later set him up in business as a butcher in Greensburg, which occupation he followed for many years. His brothers worked with him in this business also. By strict attention to business and just dealings he accumulated a large amount of property.

In politics he was a democrat. He was a firm believer in the doctrines of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

He was enrolled in the company of Captain Griffith Clark, in the 19th Regiment, 1st Brigade, 15th Division, Pennsylvania Militia, during the War of 1812. See Pa. Archives, 6th Series, Vol. 7, pp. 711-712. This organization, however, seems never to have been mustered into the United States service.

Jacob Holtzinger, (or Holtzer), father of Barbara Holtzinger Bierer, was a Lieutenant in the Flying Camp, Pennsylvania Militia, during the Revolutionary War. He was captured at the battle of Long Island August 27, 1776, and held prisoner until exchanged July 8, 1778. See Pa. Archives, 6th Series, Vol. 2, pp. 321, 437-437, 594, 599-600; 5th Series, Vol. 4, p. 327; and Boucher's History of Westmoreland Co., Pa., Vol. 3, page 32.

- * 27. Catherine Welty Bierer, b. Sept. 16, 1834.
- 28. Priscilla Bierer, died single.
- 29. Sybilla Bierer, married Frank Killen of West Union, Ohio, and they had one child, a daughter, who married. Name not known. Both parents dead.

For many years Frederick Bierer was engaged in the butchering business with his brother John in Greensburg. He later went to Connellsville where he carried on the same business for some time. In 1817 he went to Pittsburgh where he took up butchering in partnership with his brother Everhardt. In 1823 he returned to Greensburg where he continued his trade until 1831, in which year he went to Hannastown, Westmoreland county, Pa.; where he purchased a farm of 175 acres, and he continued farming until his death. At the time of his death he owned nearly 500 acres of land, all improved. He was a democrat in politics, a member of the Evangelical Lutheran church, and belonged to the Masonic fraternity. He died near St. Louis, Mo., of cholera, having gone west to visit his children. He is buried in the Union Cemetery at Greensburg, Pa. His wife, Elizabeth Lafferty Bierer was born October 7, 1792, and died March 1, 1882. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. She is buried beside her husband.

See Gresham's Westmoreland County, (Pa.P, pp. 52-53.

4. EVERHARDT BIERER, (John, 1), was born January 6, 1795, at Wiernsheim, District of Maulbrom, Duchy of Wurttemberg, Germany. He left Germany with his parents in May, 1804; and arrived at Baltimore, Md., in October of that year, and came with his mother and two brothers to Westmoreland county. He grew to manhood in Greensburg, Westmoreland county, Pa. Here on April 15, 1816, he married Margaretta Catharine Rukembrod, who was born October 28, 1798, at Malnisheim, Wurttemberg, just a few miles distant from the birthplace of her husband. She came to America with her parents, George David and Catherine Rakenbrod, also in 1804, but not on the same ship with her husband. Shortly after their marriage they settled in Pittsburgh, Pa., but in 1817 removed to Uniontown, where they afterward resided. Here he followed the business of cattle dealer and butcher until 1849, and also engaged in farming from 1828. In 1854 he sold the Gilmore farm adjoining Uniontown, and in 1855 moved on the farm still owned by his heirs. In 1861 he retired from active business. They were the parents of eleven children, 7 sons and 4 daughters, all of whom grew to maturity:

- * 30. Frederick Bierer.
- * 31. Barbara Ann Bierer, b. 1819; d. unmarried 1883.
- * 32. David Bierer, d. at Rockford, Ill., in 1904.
- * 33. John Bierer, b. 1823.
- * 34. Catherine Elizabeth Bierer, b. 1825; d. unmarried in 1910.
- * 35. Everard Bierer, d. 1910, aged nearly 84 years.
- * 36. George W. Bierer.
- * 37. Jacob Bierer, d. Jan., 1895.
- * 38. Daniel Bierer.
- * 39. Rebecca Todd Bierer, b. 1836; d. unmarried 1904.
- * 39a. Eliza Jane Bierer, b. 1839; d. unm. 1925.

The mother was lovely in amiability, refinement, and devotion to her husband and children, and the father was a man of great individuality, force, and character. Both were members from early youth of the Lutheran church, and he remained so all his life, but Mrs. Bierer, as there was no Lutheran congregation at Uniontown, united about 1855 with the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Margaretta Catherine Bierer died July 15, 1858. Everhardt Bierer died August 2, 1876. All their children are now dead.

On January 2, 1862, Everhardt Bierer married his second wife, Mrs. Ruth Shaw, a widow, by whom he had no children, and who survived him until June, 1888.

Everhardt Bierer was always a public spirited citizen, and although not a politician, was an active democrat most of his life. For a number of years in succession he was one of the Directors of the Poor of Fayette County, Pa. From 1858 to 1862 he was Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the National Road. He was one of the Board of Directors of the Bank of Fayette County from its organization in 1858 to his death in 1876. During the Civil war he was loyal to the Union cause and a great supporter of Lincoln's administration. Two of his sons, John and Everard, served in the Union army. His remains, with those of his wife, Margaretta, rest in Oak Grove Cemetery near Uniontown, Pa.

6. JOHN M. BIERER, (John M., 2; John, 1), born in Greensburg, Pa., October 24, 1807; died July 23, 1874. Married October 9, 1826 to Eliza Pool, born Sept. 18, 1808; died November 26, 1900. She was a daughter of Zachariah and Barbara (Huffman) Pool. They were the parents of the following children:

* 40. Jacob J. Bierer, b. Feb. 16, 1831; d. Sept. 2, 1902.

* 41. Zachariah Pool Bierer, b. Sept. 7, 1832; d. Oct. 13, 1895.

* 42. Samuel S. Bierer, b. Dec. 28, 1834; d. July 22, 1905.

43. Rebecca Bierer.

44. Margaret Bierer, b. June 8, 1838; d. Dec. 27, 1862.

She married John T. Gibson.

45. Florenda Bierer.

46. Matilda Bierer.

For several years John Bierer was engaged in the butchering business with his brother David. Later he was a very successful farmer. He was elected County Commissioner of Westmoreland County in 1868 and served for three years. He was also overseer of the poor for some time, and after the erection of the County Home he was a poor-house director for two terms. He served for many years as major of the old militia battalion and was very efficient and popular. He was a firm believer in the Evangelical church, of which he was a member. See Gresham's Westmoreland Co., Pa., page 52; Boucher's Westmoreland Co., Pa., Vol. 1, p. 481; and Albert's Westmoreland Co., Pa., page 421.

The following notice is of interest:

"DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP. The partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers, under the firm name of J. & D. Bierer, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The books and accounts of said firm are left in the hands of David Bierer, who is authorized to settle the same, and all persons who know themselves indebted, are requested to call without delay and make a settlement.

Nov. 30, 1832.

John Bierer

David Bierer. "

7. DAVID BIERER, (John, 2; John, 1), born in Pa., in 1809; died in Hancock county, Ohio, in 1855. He married first Anna Steelsmith, on October 24, 1829. She was born October 1, 1813, and died September 27, 1830. To them was born one child. He married second on November 15, 1831, Catherine (Dull) Cogley, who had two daughters by a previous marriage, Mary and Elizabeth Cogley. (Mary Cogley married Joshua Zoll and Elizabeth Cogley married John Romick, in Hancock county, Ohio.) David and Catherine Bierer are said to have had eight children, but names of only seven of their children are known:

- * 47. Anna Bierer, (by first wife), b. 1830; d. Jan. 19, 1909.
- * 48. George Bierer, (Berry), b. Sept. 2, 1832; d. Dec. 25, 1901.
- * 49. Catherine Rachel Bierer, b. 1835.
- * 50. Samuel J. Bierer, b. 1837; d. Nov. 9, 1868.
- * 51. Joseph Bierer, b. 1839. Served in Civil War.
- * 52. Joshua H. Bierer, b. May 4, 1844.
- * 53. Sarah A. Bierer, b. 1846. A daughter of David married a Joseph Zoll. Probably this daughter.
- * 54. Ellen C. (Chrissie) Bierer, b. 1849.

Several of the names of the children of David Bierer were obtained from the U. S. Census report of this family for 1850, so it is apparent that the eighth child of the second marriage was born after 1850. The name as borne on the census record was Beery, the way the name is pronounced.

In early life David Bierer was engaged in the butchering business in Greensburg, Pa., for a time with his brother John, and later by himself.

In 1835 he moved with his family to Ohio, where he located in Eagle township, Hancock county, near Mt. Cory. Here he engaged in farming and carried on carpenter work in addition. See History of Hancock Co., Ohio, 1886, p. 854.

His son Joseph Bierer served in the Civil War, having been enrolled April 21, 1861, at Findlay, Ohio, in Company G, 21st Regiment Ohio Infantry Volunteers, (three months organization); was mustered in on the same day at Camp Taylor, Cleveland, Ohio, as a private, and was mustered with the company as a private August 12, 1861, at Columbus, Ohio. -- A. G. O., Washington, D. C., and Columbus, Ohio. The service of the 21st Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry was in West Virginia, under General J. D. Cox. The organization was engaged in the fight at Ripley and also at Scary Creek. See Bearisley's History of Hancock County, Ohio, '1881, page 152. Joseph Bierer never applied to the Pension Office for a pension, and nothing further of him is known.

The following notices are of interest:

"N. B. The subscriber will carry on slaughtering at the old stand as usual, and will sell beef at the lowest prices, for which he will take Wheat, Rye, Oats, or Corn, in payment from this day on.
Dec. 7, 1832. David Bierer."

10. RACHEL BIERER, (John, 2; John, 1), born in 1812; died June 10, 1899. She married Adam Baughman on June 27, 1830. He was born February 9, 1809. Shortly after their marriage they removed to Echo, Armstrong county, Pa., where they bought land and followed farming. Their grandchildren still live there. They were the parents of two children:

55. Barbara Ann Baughman, b. May 23, 1831; d. May 23, 1841.

* 56. Margaret Ellen Baughman, b. Sept. 9, 1832; d.

11. ROSANNA BIERER, (John, 2; John, 1), born July 24, 1813; died January 8, 1847. She married John George Blyholder on November 17, 1831. He was born near Stuttgart, Germany, October 27, 1806, and died November 7, 1885. He was a pleasant Christian gentleman, kind and affectionate to his family and a man that always welcomed any of his friends to his home and hospitality. Their children were as follows:

* 57. Hannah Margaret Blyholder, b. Oct. 19, 1832; d.
April 16, 1898.

63. John George Blyholder, b. June 9, 1842. He was educated for the Lutheran ministry, and died December 27, 1863, shortly after being ordained.

After the death of Rosanna Bierer Blyholder, her husband married a Mrs. Rachel (Bonch) Cornman, and to this union were born the following children: Samuel, b. April 30, 1849, m. Ann Swaney; Esther Jane, b. Oct. 22, 1851, died May 9, 1856; and Margaret Ann, b. June 18, 1857, died January 6, 1898.

12. SOPHIA FREDERICKA BIERER, (John, 2; John, 1), born Dec. 7, 1816; died April 21, 1887. On September 18, 1834, she married Samuel Pool, a son of Zachariah Pool. He was born August 12, 1811, and died September 29, 1890. They both lie buried in the St. Clair Cemetery, Greensburg, Pa., in lot 113, section S. They were the parents of the following children:

64. Sarah Ann Pool, b. Nov. 17, 1835; d. Oct. 2, 1836.
- * 65. Zachariah T. Pool, b. Dec. 21, 1837; d. about 1912-1913.

- * 73. James Hunter Pool, b. November 26, 1854.
74. David Gilchrist Pool, b. July 9, 1858; d. Jan. 14, 1859.

Samuel Pool was a shoemaker by trade. He was a man whose life's record was without blot or stain. He lived an uneventful but useful life. He was a Republican in politics from principle but never sought after office. He was a member of Zion Evangelical Lutheran church of Greensburg,

Pa. In 1835 he moved to Grapeville town where he continued his trade. In the spring of 1845 he accepted the position of toll gate keeper on the Pittsburgh and Stoyes-town Pike, about a mile west of Greensburg. At that time all merchandise from eastern markets for Pittsburgh and the west passed over this Pike, being hauled in six or eight horse Conestoga wagons. His salary here consisted of free house rent and $200.00 per year. While so employed he still continued his trade. In 1851 he purchased the John Bierer homestead, which lies about one half mile west of Greensburg, paying therefor the sum of $1352.00. FREDERICK MD., JULY 16, 1863, 2.10P.M.

Brig. Gen. Lorenzo Thomas,
Adjutant General, U. S. Army,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

The One Hundred and fifty-eighth, One hundred and sixty-eighth, One hundred and seventy-first, and One hundred and seventy-fifth Pennsylvania Regiments, composing a brigade under my command at Washington, N. C., were, during the month of June, engaged at work on the forts and defenses of that place.

General Foster, commanding the department, promised those regiments that he would send them home as soon as those works were finished. By the last of June they had nearly completed those works, when, hearing of the rebel invasion of Pennsylvania, those regiments asked to be sent to their state, and offered their services during the emergency of the invasion of the State.

That emergency is now over. The brigade arrived in Maryland about the 10th of July, three regiments, viz, the One hundred and fifty-eighth, One hundred and sixty-eighth, and One hundred and seventy-first, having been one week at White House, Va. We went to Harper's Ferry, and from thence arrived on the 13th at South Mountain Pass, leaving the One hundred and seventy-fifth on Maryland Heights. From South Mountain Pass I was ordered here yesterday with the other three regiments. This morning, by telegram from Washington, the One hundred and sixty-eighth is ordered to Harrisburg, for the purpose of being mustered out, although the other two regiments were mustered into service at the same time, or a few days previously; but the muster not dated back. The other two regiments, if retained longer in service, feeling aggrieved and dissatisfied as they do, will do no good.

I wish to reorganize two of those regiments, which I think I can do if sent home now, but if kept until August, I believe, under a sense of injustice, none of them will re-enter the service.

Pardon me this long telegram. I do hope, sir, that you will, under these circumstances, let the whole brigade, at least the three regiments now here, go home together to be mustered out. I believe it will be for the best interest of the service.

I will send you by mail a copy of a circular I addressed to the brigade yesterday.

EVERARD BIERER,

Colonel, Commanding Brigade.

No. 49.

REPORT OF CAPT. JACOB J. BIERER, ELEVENTH PENNSYLVANIA INFANTRY.

Hdgrs. Eleventh Pennsylvania

Vol. Regiment,

August 22, 1863.

Sir:

In reply to circular from Headquarters Army of the Potomac, August 12, 1863, I respectfully make the following report:

About 2 p. m. June 28, the regiment marched from Middletown, Md. to the left of Frederick City, and encamped about 2 miles from said city.

June 29. -- Early we left camp and marched through Mechanicstown, and encamped near Emmitsburg, Md.

June 30. -- Marched through Emmitsburg off the Gettysburg road, and encamped 2 miles east of town and about one-fourth of a mile north of the Maryland and Pennsylvania line; there mustered for pay.

July 1. -- The regiment marched to Gettysburg and were engaged with the enemy, Colonel Coulter being in command, whose report has already been made.

July 2.- The regiment, on the evening of July 1, having taken position in rear of breastworks on the south side of town, was early this morning relieved by troops of the Second Corps, and marched about one-fourth of a mile to Cemetery Hill, in rear of which, with the division, it was formed to support a battery stationed on the hill. It remained here until 8 p. m., when it was marched to the left.

At 9:30 p.m. it resumed its former position, and was subsequently formed in rear of a stone wall between the hill and town, along the road, where it remained until morning of the 3rd, at daylight, when it moved to the position it formerly occupied in the rear of the cemetery. It remained until noon, when it was moved to the right.

About 2 p. m. the enemy commenced shelling so heavily as to make it necessary to move to the north side of the hill, where it remained about an hour, when it was marched across the cemetery to the right of the position occupied on the 2d, where it was formed in line, and remained during the balance of the day and until the 5th.

July 5.- Early in the morning the regiment, together with the brigade, was withdrawn from the rifle-pits and moved to the left, where we remained during the day and night.

July 6.- Early in the morning we left this position and moved to the State line of Pennsylvania, in Adams County, a distance of 6 miles, towards Emmitsburg, Md., and was there detailed for picket duty.

July 7.- At 3 a. m. the pickets were called in and the regiment rejoined the brigade; marched through Emmitsburg and Mechanicsstown, and encamped in the evening on a range of the South Mountain, about 5 miles from Middletown, Md.

July 8.- Started at daylight and marched through Middletown, Md., and bivouacked on the north side of South Mountain, and remained there during the night and next day, having thrown up intrenchments.

July 10.- At 8 a. m. moved from this position, marching through Boonsborough. Was halted at Beaver Creek, and threw up breastworks, expecting to be attacked by the enemy, and lay in this position during Saturday, the 11th.

July 12, Sunday.- At 12 m. left encampment; moved to Funkstown, crossing Antietam Creek; formed line of battle, and intrenched in the evening; having marched about 7 miles.

July 13.- Remained in the intrenchments thrown up on the previous day.

July 14.- The enemy having left our front, marched to within $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles of Williamsport.

July 15.- Marched through Keadysville, Md., and Petersville, and encamped at the foot of South Mountain.

July 16.- At 5:30 a. m. marched across South Mountain, passing through Burkittsville, and encamped near Berlin early in the day, and remained there during the day and night and next day until the morning of the 18th.

July 18.- Passed through Bowlin, and crossing the river on pontoon bridge, marched to Waterford. On this day the regiment, temporarily assigned to the First Brigade, was, in accordance with new orders from Headquarters Second Division, of July 18, transferred to the Second Brigade.

July 19.- At 8 a. m. left Waterford and marched to Hamilton.

July 20.- Crossing Goose Creek; came to Middleburg, where we encamped, and remained on the 20th and 21st.

July 22.- Left camp at 6 p. m., and, marching through the night, arrived at White Plains at 3 o'clock in the morning.

July 23.- Left camp at 8 a. m. and marched toward Warrentown, Va., where we arrived at 3 p. m.

I have the honor to be, yours, respectfully,

J. J. BIERER,

Captain, Comdg. Eleventh Pennsylvania

He married Lavina (Mull) Wilcox, who was a daughter of William Mull, born October 23, 1811, in Pennsylvania, and his wife, Mary Little or Lytel, daughter of David Little or Lytel. William Mull was a son of David Mull. Lavina Mull was born June 30, 1839, in Ohio, and died October 15, 1912, at Pierson, Michigan, being at that time the wife of Valentine Hartman. Samuel J. Bierer and his wife were the parents of one child:

- * 253. George Washington Bierer, (Berry), born June 26, 1866; died January 12, 1911.

Samuel Bierer served over three years and five months during the Civil war, having enrolled January 2, 1862, at Findlay, Ohio, for three years, and was mustered in same date and place as a private of Co. F, 57th Ohio Infantry Volunteers. He was honorably discharged January 31, 1864, to re-enlist as a veteran volunteer. Re-enlisted February 1, 1864, for three years in same organization. Samuel Bierer was a farmer by occupation. He was born and died in Eagle township, Hancock county, Ohio. He is buried in the Hartman Cemetery located 4 miles south and 3 miles west of Findlay, Ohio, in the Southeast Quarter of Section 9, Township 1 South, Range 10 East, (Eagle township, Hancock county, Ohio). His grave was unmarked for over sixty years, when a government marker was finally placed thereon on May 23, 1929, by Mr. W. Earl Ulrich, Post Adjutant of John Hancock Post No. 3, The American Legion, of Findlay, Ohio. Three years previous to that time, the writer of this sketch, a grandson of Samuel Bierer, became desirous of locating the grave and to see that it was properly marked. Inquiry of local authorities of Eagle township revealed that the cemetery was unplatted, but that an old neighbor of Samuel Bierer had for years decorated the grave and could show its exact location. This location was made known to the officers of the American Legion post at Findlay, Ohio, and they agreed to receive and place a government marker at the grave. The John Hancock Post No. 3, American Legion, at Findlay, Ohio, was officially designated by the Board of County Commissioners of Hancock County, to place the stone and present their bill for such service. (Commissioners Journal No. 42, Page 197, Hancock Co., Ohio, June 6, 1928). The Legion officers thereupon made written agreement to receive and place the stone, whereupon the writer made formal application to the War Department for a government marker under date of June 11, 1928. The stone was finally received and placed as above stated on May 23, 1929, and thus was finished a task which required three years to complete.

52. JOSHUA H. BIERER, (David, 7; John, 2; John, 1), born May 4, 1844. He married, February 18, 1866, Polly, daughter of Levi and Lydia (Fox) Bergman. They were the parents of one child:

* 254. Levi Ellsworth Bierer.

Joshua Bierer was a farmer by occupation, residing in Union township, Hancock county, Ohio. He served twelve years as constable of Union township. See History of Hancock County, Ohio, 1886, page 854.

54. ELLEN C. BIERER (CHRISSIE?), (David, 7; John, 2; John, 1), born in 1849. A nephew, Mr. Eli C. Cramer, stated to me in a letter that his mother had a sister "Chrissie", whom I believe to be this daughter of David Bierer. He stated that she married a man named Hall, and that she had a son living:

255. E. T. Hall, Trenton Ave., Findlay, Ohio. No response to letters, however.

It was stated in the account of Joshua Bierer in the Hancock County History, 1886, that his father had one child by first marriage and eight by second marriage, but he gave no names in his account. From the census report of 1850, I obtained the above names of David's children born before 1850. Joshua in his account said that he had three brothers in the Civil War and that one had died at Vicksburg. That would seem to indicate that the child born after 1850 was a son, and that he enlisted at an early age in the army and died at Vicksburg. If that assumption is correct, (and we must of necessity believe that Joshua knew how many brothers he had), then the "Chrissie" mentioned by Eli Cramer would be the Ellen C. Bierer named Kerewith. The Hall family lived in Fulton county, Ohio, and Chrissie Hall died about 45 years prior to 1928, the date of correspondence with Eli Cramer. —

56. MARGARET ELLEN BAUGHMAN, (Rachel Bierer, 10; John, 2; John, 1), born September 9, 1832. She married December 4, 1848, Cornelius Bittinger, who was born October, 1826, and died February 13, 1900. They were the parents of the following children:

- 256. Adam John Bittinger, b. Oct. 21, 1849.
- 257. Rachel Sophia Bittinger, b. Nov. 29, 1851.
- 258. James A. Bittinger, b. Dec. 31, 1853.
- 259. Sarah J. Bittinger, b. Feb. 28, 1856.
- 260. Mary E. Bittinger, b. March 6, 1858.
- 261. Margaret F. Bittinger, b. March 6, 1858.) twins.

- 267. Josiah C. Bittinger, b. Oct. 29, 1869.
- 268. Clara P. Bittinger, b. Jan. 17, 1871.

He was a business man, a liberal democrat in politics, with his family, was a devoted member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church. They were the parents of the following children:

He held different positions of trust and honor, being (in 1904) a member of the Board of Education in his district. He was married to Miss Sarah Kelly, of Blairsville, Pa., September 30, 1872. Two children were born to them, one dying in infancy. The other was:

289. Thomas B. Blyholder, b. June 1, 1873.

Mrs. Sarah Kelly Blyholder died June 23, 1889. His second wife was Miss Eliza Jane Blank, # 112, (Charlotte Bierer, 16; John, 2; John, 1). They were married February 4, 1892. They are members of Mt. Zion Lutheran church, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and are located on the southeast corner of Main Street and Penn Ave., (No. 4068), (1904).

65. ZACHARIAH T. POOL; (Sophia Bierer, 12; John, 2; John, 1), born December 21, 1837; died about 1912-13. He was an old resident and business man of Greensburg, Pa. He was carefully trained by his parents to habits of temperance, industry, honesty and economy, and never was given to vile use of tobacco in any form. He received his education in the rural schools of that day.

In the spring of 1856 he commenced to learn the carpenter trade with Philip J. Walthour, of Greensburg, Pa. After completing his apprenticeship, or in March, 1859, he went to Mendon, Adams county, Illinois, where he was employed as a carpenter by Benjamin Simpson, a former Greensburg contractor and carpenter, until the following November, at which time he left by steamboat for St. Louis and Memphis, taking the boat at Quincy, Illinois. He began journeyman work at his trade, being employed on the Commission Slave Yard of George B. Forrest, (afterwards General in the Confederate army), for three months, where he witnessed the buying and selling of slaves. The sight of this so disgusted him that at the next presidential election he voted for Lincoln, and soon thereafter returned to Pennsylvania.

During the war he enlisted on the first day of July, 1863, in Company C, 54th Pennsylvania Volunteer Emergency Militia, for ninety days service. He was engaged with his company and regiment in the skirmish with and capture of the noted guerrilla cavalry leader, John H. Morgan, at Salinesville, Ohio. He was mustered out with his company on August 17, 1865, at Pittsburgh, Pa., services being no longer required. This company was organized and commanded by Captain Zachariah P. Bierer, and the regiment was under the command of Colonel Gallagher. -- A. G. O., Harrisburg, Pa.

In March, 1870, he formed a partnership with his brother-in-law, Jacob P. Weaver, under the firm name of Pool & Weaver, for the purpose of operating the Daniel Kunkle planing mill in Ludwick, on a five year lease, paying a rental of $1400.00 per year, with power furnished by Mr. Kunkle. At the end of a year and a half he bought his partner's interest and conducted the business himself. By strict attention to business and honest dealing he attained considerable success. In the fall of 1873 he purchased a one third interest in the Manor Station planing mill, then owned by Isaac Bear, W. H. Bear, and Jacob Welty, he purchasing Mr. Welty's interest, the new firm name being Bear, Pool & Co. After five years he sold his interest to Isaac Bear, and in January, 1879, he bought the David Myers farm of 86 acres in Penn township, which in 1903 belonged to the Fort Pitt Glass Co. From 1881 to 1886 he was engaged in the planing mill and lumber yard business at Astabula Harbor, Ohio, in partnership with Daniel and Harry Kunkle, under the firm name of Kunkle, Pool & Co. In the spring of 1886 he purchased land and moved his family to Hazelton, Barber county, Kansas, where he remained until 1888 when he returned to Astabula Harbor, Ohio. The following year, 1889, he disposed of his property in Astabula and returned to Ludwick.

In the fall and winter of 1889 he purchased a site on Potomac Street, Greensburg, and built the Greensburg Planing Mill which he operated for several years. In the summer of 1893 he, with J. M. Wood, of Morgantown, West Virginia, and Samuel J. Zearley of Scottsdale, Pa., built the Morgantown Planing Mill, he furnishing the machinery in the Greensburg mill as his part of the capital. Shortly after the plant was completed and in operation, he sold his interest to J. M. Wood, and retired from business life.

On April 1, 1895, he moved from his Ludwick residence to the parsonage of the Zion Lutheran church in Greensburg, and took charge as sexton, which post he still held in 1903. In 1896 he became tyler, janitor and librarian of the Greensburg Masonic Temple.

SAMUEL J. BIERER (50)

JOSHUA BIERER (52)

FRANK L. BERRY
 GEORGE W. BERRY ORRIE E. BERRY
 CHARLES J. BERRY

George W. Bierer became an orphan by the death of his father when a little past two years of age, and after that lived with his mother and her people, all of whom called him Berry, since that was easier of pronounciation than the name Bierer, (which is pronounced as tho spelled Beer-y), and so when he grew up he always used the name Berry.

After his marriage he lived for seven months at Leipsic, Ohio, where he was employed as a stave jointer. He then removed to Eagleville, and lived in and near Eagleville and Bloomdale, Ohio, until 1901, a year and five months of this time being spent at Findlay, Ohio. During those years he was employed as stave jointer, railway brakeman, pipeline worker, and pumper in the oil fields. In 1901 he removed with his family to Hartwick township, Osceola county, Michigan, and located on a farm.

Due to a siege of sickenss in 1903, thereafter he went to Indiana and Illinois where he worked during the winter months for many years, in the oil fields. It was while so employed that he died ay Casey, Illinois, on January 12, 1911. At the time of his death his wife and two daughters were with him. He is buried in Cherry Valley cemetery, Hartwick township, Osceola county, Michigan.

While living in Michigan he held the office of district pathmaster, and was also a member of the school board in his district for several terms.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Berry continued to reside on the farm and managed it with the assistance of her three sons until 1916 when she removed to the village of Evart, where she resided until June, 1917, when she removed to Illinois to live with her son Noble, when Charles left to join the army. In July, 1917, Noble was transferred from Oblong, Illinois to near Sullivan, in Sullivan county, Indiana, where she resided with him until 1919., when she disposed of the property in Michigan and bought a home in Sullivan. She resided there until the fall of 1928, when she removed to Seminole, Oklahoma; where at that time her son and son-in-law were employed in the oil fields. She resided there until her death November 16, 1932. -- See The Richard Genealogy, 1926. pp67-69.

EASTER REMEMBRANCE COMES FROM MICHIGAN.

Mrs. Orrie Berry Receives Unique and Beautiful Gift from Friends.

Mrs. Orrie Berry of North State Street received Monday a unique and useful Easter greeting from the Avondale Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church at Evart, Michigan, her former home.

The greeting is a "signature" quilt. The body work of the quilt is of white divided into twelve equally proportioned hollowed red squares. In the center of the red square is a small red circle, also hollowed. In the circle daintily stitched in red is the signature of some friend of Mrs. Berry, and surrounding the circle in the hollowed square are signatures of many other friends. In all there are nearly three hundred signatures on the quilt and the combined effect is beautiful, making of the whole a cleverly conceived piece of handiwork which Mrs. Berry treasures highly. Friends have written Mrs. Berry that the expense of the quilt was contributed by each person whose name is written or rather stitched upon it, ten to twenty-five cents having been given by each friend.

The following letter announced the quilts arrival:

Evart, Michigan,
March 22, 1923.

Mrs. Orrie E. Berry,
304 N. State St.,
Sullivan, Indiana.

My dear Mrs. Berry:

In behalf of the Avondale Ladies Aid Society I am sending you greetings. Under separate cover I am sending an Easter remembrance from us all that we hope will remind you that we are still loving you and that we haven't forgotten how faithfully you worked in the Aid when you were here.

The Aid is going in fine shape. Last summer we had the wall painted, the outside painted pure white, the walls inside redecorated buff and brown and a new rostrum carpet also buff and brown. We had previously built and equipped a dandy kitchen, built a cement and red brick porch and bought a piano. So you see we are justly proud of our church. How I wish you could see it.

Give my love to the rest. How I would like to see you all. Write us and tell how each one of you are and what you are doing, as we often wonder.

Love and best wishes from the whole Aid.

Yours,

Helen G. Clark.

FRANK BERRY HOME DESTROYED SUNDAY.

About seven o'clock last Sunday morning the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berry in the southwest part of the village was practically destroyed by fire.

Mr. Berry had arisen and started a fire in the kitchen stove and gone out on the back porch. One of the children discovered the fire and gave the alarm but the flames had gained considerable headway already.

The fire alarm sounded and the fire apparatus was soon on the scene but the building was practically destroyed before the blaze could be put out. The walls are left standing but probably too badly damaged to permit repair.

Most of the household goods were removed in a more or less damaged condition and the family are now living in a tent in the yard pending the adjustment of the insurance. -- From The Marion Press, Marion, Michigan, Thursday, September 15, 1932.

MULL FAMILY DATA.

THE MULL FAMILY.

1. DAVID MULL, the first known ancestor in this line, lived in or near Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, at one time. It is believed that he later lived in Somerset County, Pennsylvania. About the year 1817 he migrated with his family to the state of Ohio, and settled near Somerset, Perry County, or in Fairfield County, which place is not certain, but these are adjoining counties. Prior to his removal to Ohio, he served as Sheriff of the county in which he resided, for eight years. The name of his wife and the names and number of his children are not known. The only known child was:

* 2. William Mull, b. October 23, 1811.

2. WILLIAM MULL, (David, 1), born October 23, 1811, probably in Lancaster County, Pa., or perhaps near Reading in the adjoining county of Berks, since he many times mentioned Reading. In a work of this kind it is practically impossible to reach completion without having made numerous errors, and the writer is no exception to the general rule. The wonder is that more errors have not been made. The following errors are herewith pointed out, and doubtless others will be found that have been overlooked.

POSTSCRIPT

Postscripts become necessary when one has failed to say something in its proper place. This postscript is like all others in that respect.

For the benefit of those who are not familiar with genealogical books and records, I should have pointed out in the introduction something regarding the method of numbering used. Having overlooked it at that point, I will do so here. I have begun with the first recorded ancestor in each case as number 1, and have numbered his children on from there in consecutive order, and have then taken the first of his children that had a family of his own and have continued the numbering of his children in turn in regular order. Before the name of each person who has a family or personal account under his own number I have placed a star. Then after the name of each person in his own account, I have placed the name and number of his father, grandfather, etc., showing the line back to the first recorded ancestor. Thus one may look at any account in the latter pages of the book, and by referring to the numbers, trace the line back without any difficulty whatever.

There were so few orders in advance that production of the book has taken longer because of financial reasons. Also since the first of the year, I have been very busy with other matters that required much of my time, with the result that that too caused some delay. However, the work is now practically done, and the first copies will soon be in the hands of the subscribers.

Regarding the pictures included in the book, the one of Samuel Bierer was probably taken about 1865, while the one of Joshua was likely taken about that time, tho I do not know. They are reproduced from an old tin type which was in my father's possession and in turn passed to myself. The picture of my father's family was taken about 1893 or 1894, exact time not known. The picture of the Thorne-Berry family of Oklahoma was taken on April 2, 1933. The one of my brother, my son and myself, was taken on February 21, 1933.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Copies of the author's two previous genealogical records are available, and for sale, as indicated in the following book reviews:

THE RICHARD GENEALOGY, by Charles J. Berry, 1926. Octavo, cloth, mimeographed, 3 illustrations, indexed, pp. 176. Price, $3.50. Address: Charles J. Berry, 3848 Bloomington Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

This genealogy traces the descendants of Charles Richard (1755-1852) of Pennsylvania, whose parents are said to have come from Switzerland, and of Jacob Richard, born in Germany, who emigrated to Pennsylvania about 1740-50. Concisely written, well arranged and numbered, fully indexed, this book might well serve as a model to much more pretentious volumes.

Recommended to genealogical libraries.

THE JOHNSON-BERG-WESTHEIM and CHRISTOPHER-SON FAMILIES, by Charles J. Berry, 1930. Octavo, cloth, mimeographed, indexed, pp. 151. Price $4.00. Address: Charles J. Berry, 3848 Bloomington Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The author of this extremely well compiled genealogy has struck a new note in the "three brothers" tradition-- but this time a true one. The brothers in this case have different surnames, Johnson, Berg, and Westheim, all being sons of John Johnson or Johannes Johanneson (1820-1896), of Norway and Minnesota, whose father bore the same name. The name Johnson was taken from the father's first name of John, adding "son", according to the Norse custom, which was also the early Dutch custom; the name Berg was derived from Nokleberg in Norway, where the family once lived; the name Westheim was taken from a farm where the progenitor of that branch of the family lived. Various members of the family emigrated to America between 1865 and 1885, and settled in Minnesota. Their relationships are shown and their descendants traced.

The book is well arranged and carefully numbered and edited, and the only criticism is the inclusion of unessential newspaper extracts that often add nothing to what has already been told. Recommended to genealogical libraries.
